WHO SAYS THE BULL HAS STOPPED FIGHTING?

Singapore, March 01 2009: NextVIEW, the fastest growing pan Asian financial information data vendor, is putting some fun into organizing, ATIC @Singapore on 18 – 19 April, 2009, in these seemingly bleak times.

Leading up to their Third Annual Asia Trader & Investor Convention, themed “Growing Your Capital in Uncertain Times” NextVIEW will be promoting the convention with mascots and short skits this year in the CBD area! Look out for their Rampaging Bull that will fight against a Bear during lunch hours.

Besides the appearance of the Bull and Bear, 25 local and internationally renowned financial experts and trading professionals will be congregating in Singapore to speak and network at the Third Asia Trader & Investor Convention (ATIC), the biggest financial industry event of the year.

The two-day convention starting on 18 April at the Suntec Convention Centre aims to share first hand investment and trading strategies as well as, coaching traders and investors on techniques on how to grow their capital in the volatile market.

“NextVIEW hopes that through the ATIC program, investors will be more informed about their available investment options in today’s market” says, Mr. Stephen Lai, NextVIEW CEO.

The convention will feature more than 30 exhibiting companies and over 50 specialised trading and investment strategies seminars and workshops conducted in English and Chinese.

“ATIC is like a buffet” says Mr. Lai. “Participants can choose from more than 50 seminars available to suit their investment needs.”

This years theme, “Growing Your Capital in Uncertain Times” is expected to draw a crowd of 15,000 delegates and visitors consisting of retail investors, active traders, market professionals, and novice investors. Delegates and visitors will gain insight into the rapidly changing global investment markets and will explore profitable investment and trading opportunities at the event.

Topics covered at this year’s theme will include specific investments and trading strategies, global equities, futures, forex, REITs, ETFs, real estate, CFDs and asset allocation. These topics will be presented in keynote addresses, panel discussions, and workshops.

Investment experts CNBC Squawkbox commentator Daryl Guppy, Paul Forchione, Don Schellenberg, Dar Wong and many others will be at the event to share their knowledge and advice on how to become more profitable in 2009.

ATIC is held in several countries and enjoys strong support from Singapore Exchange, Bursa Malaysia, Ho Chi Minh Stock Exchange and the Tokyo Stock Exchange, as well as major industry players.
